Consequently Young Man in

Martin Lands in Cell.

Total	..... $16.75

With a young man in the array fashion devoted for after 6 at night. Daniel W.
Jordan, who gave his address as the Hotel Royalton, No. 44 West Forty-fourth street, appeared in Jefferson Market Court to-day to explain how he happened to order $16.75 worth of food for himself and companions at the Hotel Martin when he had not the money to pay for the same.

The complainant was Antonio Caviana, a waiter at the Hotel Martin, who declared that Jordan, together with another man and a young woman, all in evening attire, had dined sumptuously to the extent of $16.75 in the cafe and that when the bill was presented he could not pay it. The technical charge against Jordan was a violation of the hotel act.

Jordan told the waiter and his chief that his people would pay the bill when it was presented to them, but this did not satisfy the hotel people. They did not know his people and called in a policeman.

Neither the other young man nor the young woman went with Jordan to the Tenthredin station. In giving his pedigree Jordan said he was connected with the Jordan Manufacturing Company, of No. 73 Leonard street.

At the Hotel Royalton, Jordan's brother, Henry Jordan, was seen. When told of the incident at the Hotel Martin he exclaimed: "Why, that must be my brother. I don't see how he got into trouble at Martin's (though he has an account there. Guess I'd better go down to court. He may be broke. Don't see why he should let me know. I would have bailed him out."

Being broke, of course Jordan had no time for Henri, or Pierre or Philippe; and they naturally were willing to appear in court as witnesses.

Jordan is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and has lived in the city about a year. While out with a friend last evening they met two young ladies acquaintances and all went to the theatre.

After the theatre, having no money, but having an account at Martin's, he invited the party there to supper. When the bill was presented he signed his name to it, and told the waiter to have it charged to his account. The waiter demanded and brought another employee, who, according to Jordan, said: "Oh, h—, you have no account here."

After the argument with the waiter between Jordan and the waiter's friend told the two young women and a friend Jordan's brother appeared in court and settled the affair by paying the bill. The prisoner, after his release, remarked as he left the court:

"I just want one punch at that f—of mine who skipped."

A Struggle with Conscience.
(From the Chicago Journal.)
A passenger on a street-car recently had an opportunity to study, unobserved, the struggle between conscience and cupid in a little ten-year-old girl.

The conductor failed to collect her fare immediately after she entered the car.
She had the required nickel in her hand, and she watched him furtively for a moment, but whether he would overlook her entirely.

She was apparently in a quandary what to do, and then conscience commenced to perform its subtle functions. Several times she held out her hand in a hesitating manner. Meanwhile the nickel was carefully concealed between her fingers from the view of the conductor. After making this abortive pretense of paying several times conscience was triumphant, and the next time the conductor passed she held out the fare boldly and there was no mistaking her intention.

There was a satisfied look on her chubby face when the fare was registered, and it is doubtful if she realized how great a victory she had won and what an influence this tiny incident might have in shaping her character.

SKIN DISEASES

Altoona, Pa., June 20, 1903.
I was afflicted with Tetter in bad shape. It would appear in blotches as large as my hand, a yellowish color, and scale off. You can imagine how offensive it was. For twelve years I was afflicted with this trouble. At night it was a case of scratch and many times no rest at all. Seeing the good the medicine was doing a friend who was taking it for Eczema, I commenced it, and as a result the eruption began to dry up and disappear, and to-day I am practically a well man. Only two tiny spots are left on the elbow and shin, where once the whole body was affected.
I have every confidence in the medicine, and feel sure that in a short time these two remaining spots will disappear. S. S. S. is certainly a great blood purifier, and has done me a world of good. I am grateful for what it has accomplished, and trust that what I have said will lead others who are similarly afflicted to take the remedy and obtain the same good results that I have.

JOHN F. LEAR.
125 East Fifth Ave.

While washes, soaps, salves and powders relieve temporarily, they do not reach the real cause of the disease. The blood must be purified before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. contains no potash, arsenic or mineral of any description, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Send for book diseases, mailed free.

vise without any charge all who case.
